

Trainers of the training program "Training for trainers"ARMIN JUST

Since 2012 Prof. Dr. Armin Just is Professor of Construction Engineering at the European Training Center for the Housing and Real Estate Industry (EBZ) Business School. Since 2015 - Vice-Rector for Academic and Pedagogical Affairs. Prof. Dr. Armin Just focuses in his teaching activities on the transfer of the basics of building technology to the basic understanding of buildings. The main areas of research of Professor Just are: modification of multi-functional building materials (foam concrete), optimization of processes in the field of energy reconstruction of buildings and modular building systems. In addition, for over 15 years he has been involved in structural damage analysis and the development of concepts for the overhaul of mineral building materials and building parts.

CHRISTIAN THOMAS

Christian Thomas has a BA in Real Estate and has extensive experience in sustainability and economics. For many years he was the director of a municipal housing company. At the EBZ Academy, Christian Thomas works as a trainer, moderator and mediator, including in matters of neighborhood development. Housing companies use its services if necessary to moderate conflicts that have arisen. Christian Thomas is an experienced urban moderator with extensive experience in large-scale moderation.

ALEXA FLECKE-VEDOVELLI

Alexa Flecke-Vedovelli has been with the topic of housing since childhood, as her parents ran a small rental and property management company. After receiving higher education in the specialty "Law" - from 2002 to 2010 worked as a lawyer with an emphasis on lease and residential property rights. Since summer 2010 - EBZ teacher in Bochum. This made it possible to combine practical knowledge gained with theory in the field of real estate economics, property law and brokerage law, as well as accompany young, motivated people in their professional career as a real estate agent.

STEFAN SCHOEBEL

Stefan Schoebel is a certified real estate specialist:

- Publicly appointed and sworn expert in residential property management of the Chamber of Commerce (CCI) of North Westphalia
- Entrepreneur in the field of real estate and housing construction, management company for the management of residential and non-residential real estate, Marl, Germany
- Member of the examination committee (real estate specialists) of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of North Westphalia
- Member of the German meeting of the rental court
- Lecturer at the European Education Center, Academy of Housing Management in Bochum, Germany.

DOMINIC DENNEMARK

Dominic Denmark is a Certified Trainer, Personnel Development Consultant and Education Assistant at the EBZ Academy. He has worked in real estate management for 8 years. This brought him a deep understanding of the industry and gave him the opportunity to combine his practical experience with work on personnel development.

RUEDIGER GREBE

Ruediger Grebe is the director of the EBZ Academy. Mr. Grebe received a higher pedagogical education with the specialization “Teacher in vocational schools”. For several years he worked as a lecturer at vocational schools in the banking and real estate sectors. Since 2009, he has headed the EBZ Academy. In the project PROMHOUSE conducts webinars on the topic ‘digitalization’.

ELANUR DOGRU

In 2017, Elanur Dogru completed her Bachelor's and later Master's degrees in Management and Economics at the Ruhr University in Bochum. Since February 2018 he has been working at EBZ Academy as an educational assistant. Along with numerous upgrades in the workplace, Ms. Dogru had the opportunity to organize various conferences, forums, seminars, and also participate in international projects such as PROMHOUSE.

GENNADY KALENOV

Since 2010 Executive Director of the International Association for Real Estate Management. The Association is registered in the Republic of Belarus, the office is located in the city of Minsk. Association was established during the number of German-Belarusian projects funded by the Belarus Support Programme. Association website is <https://jildom.com/>

A topical project of the Association in cooperation with the Housing Initiative for Eastern Europe (IWO e.V.) - “Development of innovative instruments for professional real estate management in Belarus”, 2019-2021.

Gennady Kalenov is a member of the Public Advisory Council under the Ministry of Housing and Communal Services of the Republic of Belarus.

Participated in the implementation of the practice of 'hausmaster' in Belarus.

EUROPEAN TRAINING CENTRE FOR THE HOUSING AND REAL ESTATE INDUSTRY (EBZ)

EBZ is one of the largest educational institutions that specializes in training professionals in the field of housing and real estate. EBC was founded in 1957. Located in Bochum, Germany

EBZ is actively teaching in many educational specialties, both in training for a bachelor's degree and for a master class. EBC has about 2,410 students and 200 associate professors who meet the needs of all areas of housing and real estate (administration, economics and organization of production, financing, marketing, building management, building management, maintenance, modernization, renovation, new buildings, urban development, privatization, social management, etc.).

